

Prompt –

Context

Act as a senior software developer to update the existing Ai browser application to support language java script to generate code and add WebdriverIO framework

Instructions

[Mandatory] Analyse the existing ai browser extension code base

[Mandatory] Add java script language as extra option in supported language dropdown

[Mandatory] Add WebdriverIO framework option in Browser Engine dropdown

[Mandatory] Add necessary code to auto generate java script and WedriverIO code when user select these options in the drop down and perform some action ex - generate feature file and page class

[Mandatory] When user enables feature file option and inspect the element and click on generate. It should generate feature file using java script and webdriverIO framework

[Mandatory] When user enables page class option and inspect the element and click on generate. It should page object model framework using java script and webdriverIO framework

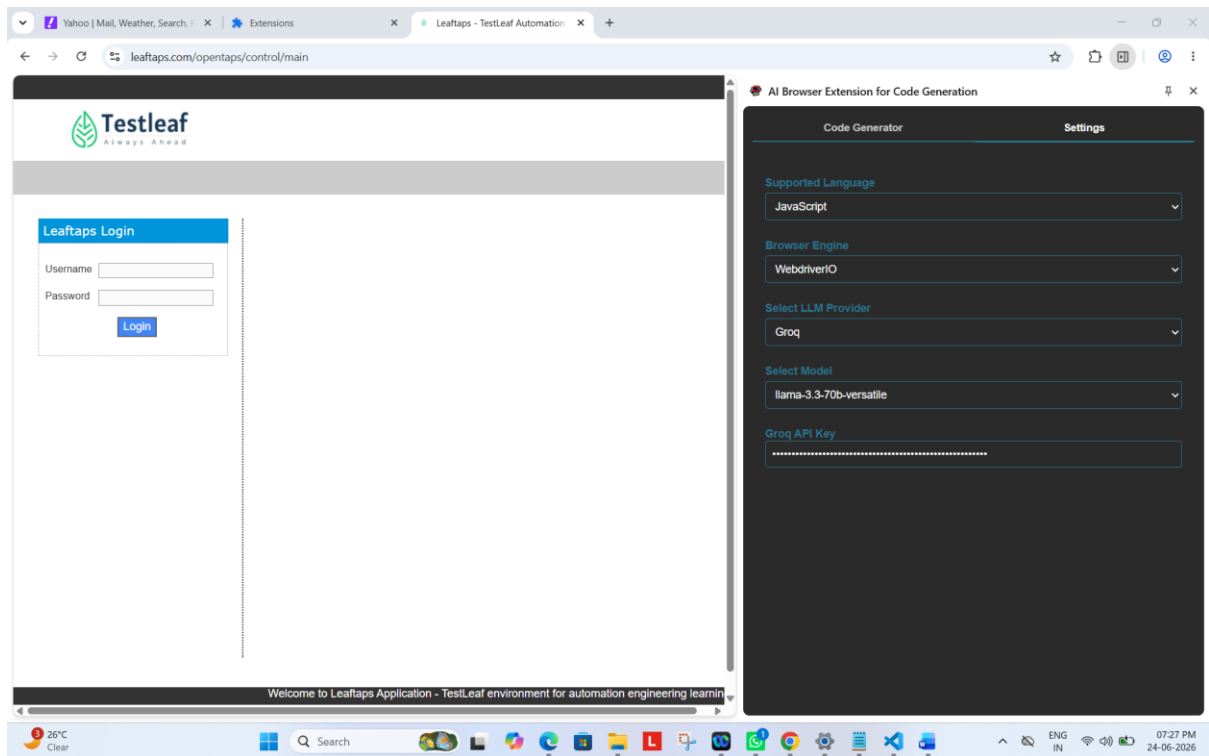

[Strict] When user clicks on generate, Make sure code is generate based on user selected language and framework. No change in the existing implementation.

[Mandatory] Add a copy button to copy the generated code

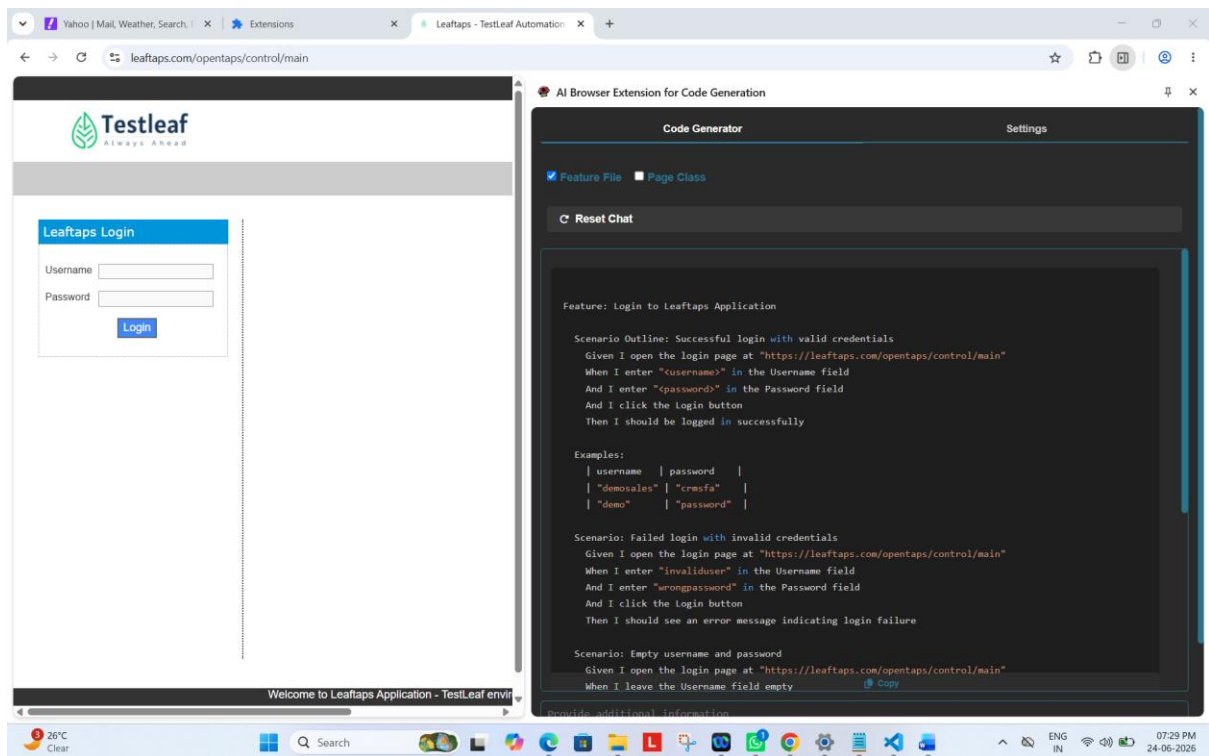

Output

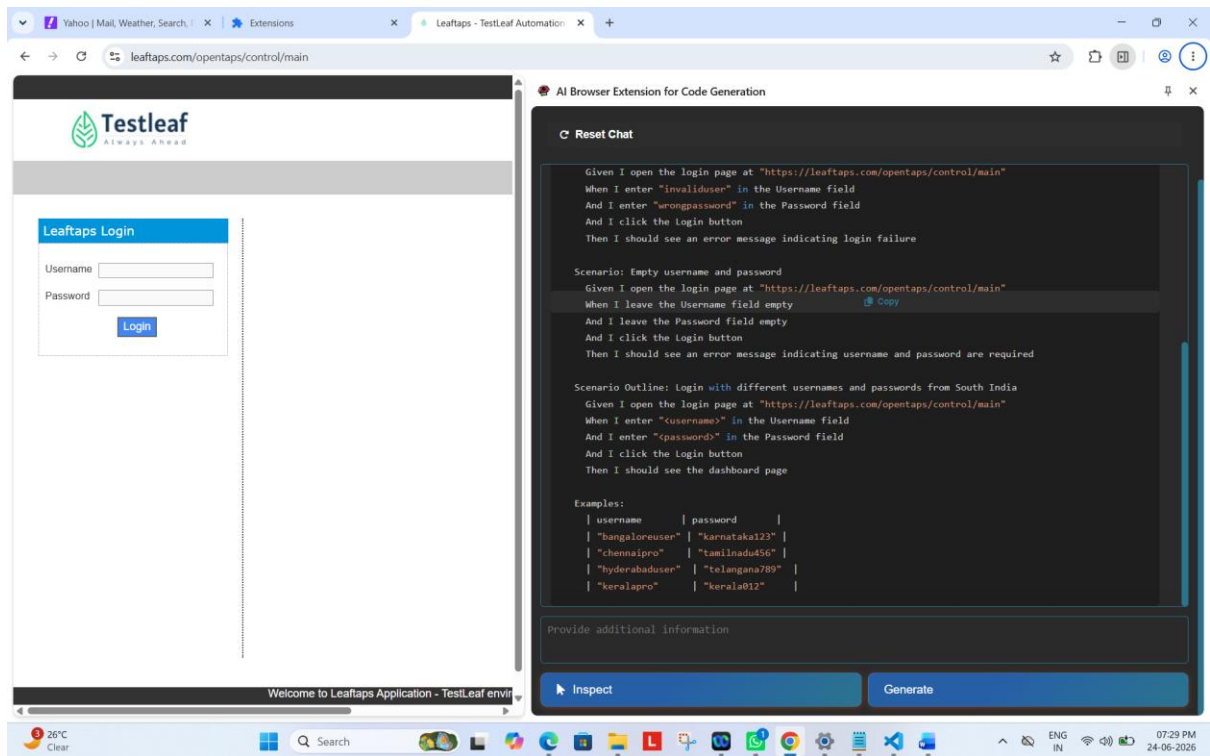

Code should be generate based on user selected language and framework.

UI – Newly added language/browser engine – JavaScript/WebdriverIO

Feature file generated –

Page class –

