

API –

New feature –

The screenshot shows a REST client interface with a sidebar on the left containing a collection of API endpoints. The main panel displays a POST request to the endpoint `[[baseUrl]]/api/v1/comparisons/new-feature`. The request body is a JSON object with the following structure:

2   "id": "cmp_0a6e6b5c-0da8-4d55-a227-0b552b98f5ca",
3   "status": "processing",
4   "workflow": "new-feature",
5   "mode": null,
6   "progress": {

14  }
15 }

The response status is 202 Accepted with a response time of 33 ms and a body size of 1.6 KB. The response body is a JSON object with the same structure as the request body.

The screenshot shows the same REST client interface, but now displaying a GET request to the endpoint `[[baseUrl]]/api/v1/comparisons/cmp_0a6e6b5c-0da8-4d55-a227-0b552b98f5ca`. The response status is 200 OK with a response time of 31 ms and a body size of 1.52 KB. The response body is a JSON object with the following structure:

Recommendation

needs-changes

The score of 60/100 and critical severity are justified due to the presence of two critical findings: the missing primary call-to-action button and the missing "Cancel" button. Although there are several minor findings, their impact is not significant enough to override the critical issues identified.

Score legend

Severity	Score band	Meaning
critical	< 50, or any critical finding	Critical issue(s) found; must fix before release.
high	50-69	Major issues present; changes required.
medium	70-84	Moderate issues; review recommended.
low	85-94	Minor polish items only.
pass	95-100	No issues above minor severity detected.

93/100

Severity: Low, Mode: text

The score and severity of low were determined due to the presence of a moderate-severity finding related to a layout-relevant text discrepancy, which is a significant issue. However, the overall score of 93 indicates that the issue is isolated and does not significantly impact the overall functionality of the feature. The required change is relatively minor, involving a review of the affected layout region.
